Zoning Regulations for Residential Businesses

Residential Business – An accessory land use conducted in a Dwelling Unit by the resident of the Dwelling Unit for monetary gain.

Development Permit – A document authorizing a development issued pursuant to the Regina Zoning Bylaw No. 2019-19. The Residential Business licence application shall be the development application.

1. Maximum Gross Floor Area – A Residential Business cannot occupy more than 25% of the gross floor area of the dwelling unit. The gross floor area includes the areas of all floor levels within the dwelling and areas of any garage or accessory building. Where there is more than one Residential Business, the combined floor area occupied by all businesses cannot exceed 25%. The maximum gross floor area is not applicable for an Institution, Day Care.

2. Storage – No exterior storage of the Residential Business is permitted at the residence.

3. Outdoor Work/Activities – No exterior operation of the Residential Business is permitted at the residence. This is not applicable for an Institution, Day Care.

4. Merchandise, Display and Sales – Only merchandise created, assembled, or designed on-site may be displayed and sold from the Residential Business. No window display of the merchandise is permitted at the residence.

5. Business Vehicle – A minimum of one additional parking stall must be provided on-site for each vehicle used by the Residential Business for business purposes only.

6. Institution, Day Care – Permitted as a Residential Business if the Institution, Day Care meets the requirements of a “family child care home” or “group family child care home”, as defined by The Child Care Act, 2014.

   a. Individuals Under Care – Without a Provincial licence, maximum of up to 8 individuals under care at any one time, including children who reside on premise. With a Provincial licence, maximum of up to 12 individuals under care at any one time, including children who reside on premise.

   b. Passenger Drop-Off Stall - A minimum of one passenger drop-off stall is required where there are 1 to 10 individuals under care. A minimum of two passenger drop-off stalls are required where there are 11 to 12 individuals under care.

7. Service Trade, Clinic (Massage Therapy Services Only) – For the purposes of massage services an accredited member shall mean an active member in good standing with the Massage Therapist Association of Saskatchewan, Inc., the Natural Health Practitioners of Canada, or the Canadian Massage & Manual Osteopathic Therapists Association. Massage therapy credentials must be submitted with application for processing.

Access the City of Regina’s zoning map online to determine your property’s current zone. The zone for a property is found to the right of the “code” field in the search results window.

Regulations for each zone and definitions can be found in the Regina Zoning Bylaw No. 2019-19.

For further zoning information including permitted and prohibited activities, appeal processes or questions regarding any of the points listed above, contact the Planning & Development – City Planning Branch at 306-777-7000.

Other Applicable Regulations

Employees – No person other than the resident of the dwelling unit shall be engaged in a residential business as an employee or volunteer. This is not applicable for an Institution, Day Care. (The Licensing Bylaw No. 2006-86).

Prohibited Vehicles – Any vehicle with a combined weight exceeding 4,500 kilograms is not permitted to be parked on a residential lot. The combined weight means the weight of the vehicle and the load carried by the vehicle. (The Community Standards Bylaw No. 2016-2)
