

TRANSIT works!

Regina Transit helps commuters save money with their Employer Pass Program. Employees at participating companies can purchase an Employee R-Card through payroll deduction. The cost of a yearly R-Card is the same as purchasing ten monthly adult bus passes. It's like getting two months free!

This program eliminates the need to buy a new pass every month. As well, you can use your Employee R-Card for unlimited rides on Regina Transit, any time, any day.

Many Regina companies participate in the Employer Pass Program. For more information about the program, contact Regina Transit at:
