

Overview
Proposal	The Applicant proposes to develop, at 8101 Dewdney Avenue (Subject Property), within one proposed new building, the following: • An Institution, Day Care (day care) land-use supporting 90 children. • An Assembly, Community land-use (community gathering space).
Additional Information	Per the Regina Zoning Bylaw, the Subject Property is zoned RH – Residential High-Rise Zone, which requires that Institution, Day Care, which supports over 30 children, and Assembly, Community, be reviewed through the Discretionary Use procedure. The Discretionary Use procedure allows the Decision Authority to consider proposed developments on a case-by-case basis, factoring in overall “fit” and compatibility with surrounding land-use and roadways, etc., as well as public input. The Subject Property forms part of an undeveloped area within the Westerra Neighbourhood, which is, currently, the subject of a subdivision application and review. Should the subdivision, and subsequent development, be approved, the Subject Property will be located amongst a mix of residential dwelling types. The Proposed Development also includes a building intended for Dwelling land-use; however, this is not subject to the Discretionary Use procedure requirements.
Process
Review / Decision	Following the public and technical review process, which is currently underway, the Administration will submit a report to the Decision Authority, which will include a summary of the public comments, as well as Administration’s recommendation. The Decision authority respecting Discretionary Use applications is the City Development Officer, unless the application warrants review and decision by City Council, in accordance with the Discretionary Use review criteria of the Zoning Bylaw (Ch.1, Part 1D, Section 1D.1 [1.2], [2a]). Where an application is directed to City Council, it will first be considered by the Regina Planning Commission (RPC) who will then provide a recommendation to City Council. Both the RPC and Council meetings are open to the public; therefore, you may attend these meetings and view the deliberation or speak directly to the RPC or Council. Please refer to the attached Application Review Process summary. If you wish to be kept informed about the date and time of these meetings, be sure to give the City your contact information.
