

Procurement Opportunities FAQ

1 What types of vendors does the City of Regina work with?

- Construction and Demolition Contractors
- Engineering Consultants and Contractors
- Heavy Equipment and Snow Removal Services
- Suppliers of Uniforms, Safety Gear and Cleaning Products
- IT and Geospatial Software Vendors
- Furniture, Equipment and Material Suppliers
- Environmental and Waste Management Providers
- Arboriculture and Landscaping Services
- Consultants for Community Programming and Non-Profit Support

2 How does the City work with vendors?

- Procurement through public competitions
- Prequalification and documentation requirements
- Clear communication and professionalism
- Compliance with City standards
- Specific opportunities for verified Indigenous vendors

3 What documentation is typically required?

- Proof of insurance and bonding
- WCB Letter of Good Standing
- Safety training verification
- Engineer-stamped drawings for infrastructure work
- Estimates, cost breakdowns, and final invoices
- IMSA certifications for traffic-related services
- Service warranties and proof of permission to consult

4 How can vendors improve their chances of success?

- Read competition documents thoroughly
- Attend pre-bid meetings when offered
- Submit complete and detailed proposals
- Ask questions during the designated Q&A period
- Request a debrief session after competitions

5 What qualities does the City look for in vendors?

- Timely delivery and responsiveness
- Competitive pricing and value
- High-quality workmanship and materials
- Flexibility and adaptability
- Commitment to safety, sustainability and innovation