A special tax is levied annually for the maintenance and reconstruction of alleys throughout the city.

The report proposes a fee of $3.90 per foot for asphalt alleys and $2.72 per foot for gravel alleys. These amounts are payable by properties abutting a legal alley either on its rear or flank based on assessable frontage. The tax proposes raising $5,168,972 in 2023.

The recommendation for the proposed special tax will be considered by City Council during its meetings on Wednesday, December 14, 2022, Thursday, December 15, 2022, Friday December 16, 2022, and any subsequent days as required 9 a.m. in the Henry Baker Hall, Main Floor City Hall.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CONSIDER LONG-TERM DEBT FINANCING

The City of Regina hereby gives notice, pursuant to sections 101 and 102 of The Cities Act and The Public Notice Policy Bylaw, 2020, Bylaw No. 2020-28, of its intention to consider long-term debt financing for the City's proposed 10-Year Recreation & Culture Capital Plan. City Council will be considering an Operating and Capital budget which projects the potential borrowing of $59 million in 2025 to fund the construction of a new Indoor Aquatic Facility.

Long-term debt financing will be considered as part of the City's Budgets by Regina City Council at its Wednesday December 14, 2022 meeting at 9:00 a.m. at Henry Baker Hall, City Hall. The debt may also be considered at subsequent meetings of Regina City Council, including on December 15, 2022 and December 16, 2022 if budget discussions are continued at those meetings. The specific details of the potential financing will also come forward at a later date, if the borrowing is required, as City Council must pass a bylaw for long term debt financing before the City can issue a debenture or borrow any funds for that potential debt.

If any person wishes to appear before City Council on the dates listed, the person must register with the Office of the City Clerk no later than 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 8. Please visit <https://www.regina.ca/city-government/city-council/council-meetings/> or call the Office of the City Clerk at 306-777-7262 for more information on the requirements to appear.
