ANTENNA SYSTEM (CELL TOWER) PROTOCOL – REVIEW

The City of Regina has prepared draft protocol (guidelines) regarding the design and location of, and public consultation associated with, proposed new telecommunication antenna systems. Most of the new antenna systems developed in the city are in the form of cell towers; therefore, the draft Protocol primarily address cell tower development.

If you would like to review the draft Protocol, please visit Regina.ca/celltowers.

This information will be made available May 24, 2022, and the review period will be open until June 6, 2022. The City welcomes any comments or questions you may have.
