City of Regina Housing Incentives Policy

Heritage & North Central Home Ownership Tax Exemption Application

The City of Regina provides a three-year, 100% tax exemption to encourage new owner-occupied housing development in Regina's Heritage and North Central neighbourhoods¹. The Program Area map is provided in Schedule 1 of this application form and information about the Housing Incentives Program are available on Regina.ca under the Housing section:

To be eligible, applications must be made while development is underway and will not be accepted retroactively once development is complete. Applications for affordable rental or ownership units should use application specific to affordable developments.

Eligibility Requirements

- Completed application form including a copy of the property title and an approved Building Permit.
- Dwelling is only eligible where the subject property was vacant as of January 1, 2020 or contains building(s) that are in need of Major Repairs² and will be demolished.
- The new Dwelling must be owner occupied.
- The Dwelling must be located in HIP Program Area 2: Special Policy Area
- The owner(s) must enter into a legal agreement with the City setting out the terms and conditions through which the exemption will be provided. The legal agreement will be sent to you via the information provided. Failure to return a legal agreement may result in loss of tax exemption.
- Outstanding property tax balances and other charges to the City of Regina must be paid.
- The exemption applies to the land and building assessment for residential purposes and excludes any portion utilized for commercial or other purposes.
- To be eligible, applications must be made while development is underway.

¹ The Education Property Tax Act specifies that any exemption of education property taxes that is $25,000 or greater must be approved by the Government of Saskatchewan. As a result, the exemption may cover the municipal and library portions of the taxes only. Where the exemption of the education portion of the property taxes is not approved or is reduced, the Owner will be required to pay the balance of the education portion of the property taxes and the City shall not be liable to the Owner for any amount of the tax exemption, which would have otherwise been granted to the Owner.

² Major Repair refers to where an existing dwelling is deemed to be unsafe or unsuitable for habitation by Fire & Protective Services, Regina Police Services, Ministry of Health, Bylaw Enforcement or Building Standards.

Not Eligible

- Existing housing units, renovations, homes built on existing foundations, group or care homes.
- Existing rental apartments that are being converted to condominium units.
- New Dwelling units that are being rented for both long-term and short-term accommodation (e.g. AirBnB).
- Ownership units (condominiums) that are being rented for short-term accommodation (e.g. AirBnB)
- Site where an existing heritage building has been demolished.

Property to be Exempted ³:

Property Address: _____ Postal Code: _____

Legal documents, which are required for tax exemption eligibility, will be sent to the applicant's address. For homeownership units, this must be the property to be exempted. If the provided mailing address is different from the mailing address on file at the City, you are required to update your address with the Property Tax & Utility Billing Branch. You may confirm the address on file and update by logging in to your account on eProperty under MyAccount (Regina.ca/Myaccount) or by completing a Notification of Address Change form. (This will only update your Property Tax account.) Failure to return legal agreements sent to you will result in loss of the tax exemption.
