

City of Regina Housing Incentives Policy Rental Housing Tax Exemption Application

The City of Regina provides a five-year, 100% tax exemption for the development of market rental housing in Program Area 1 & 2 and affordable rental housing in all Program Areas. The Program Area map is provided in Schedule 1 of this application form and information about the Housing Incentives Program are available on Regina.ca under the Housing section.¹

To be eligible, applications must be made while development is underway and will not be accepted retroactively once development is complete.

Eligibility Requirements

- Completed application form including a copy of the property title and an approved Building Permit for the rental project.
- Application for tax exemption must be completed before October 31 for consideration for an exemption to begin on January 1st of the following year. Where this application is returned between November 1 and December 31, the exemption will be delayed by an additional year.
- The owner(s) must enter into a legal agreement with the City setting out the terms and conditions through which the exemption will be provided. The legal agreement will be sent to you via the information provided. Failure to return a legal agreement provided by the City will result in loss of tax exemption.
- Outstanding property tax balances and other charges to the City of Regina must be paid.
- Project must have two or more approved rental units. Units must be in an RN Zone or higher where a duplex or semi-detached is allowed². Zoning for a site can be found on Building Permit.
- Single family dwellings with rented secondary suite are eligible but must fill out the Secondary Suite application.

A two-unit Purpose Built Rental Building constructed by a Non-Profit Housing Provider in an R1 zone is eligible under the Rental Housing Tax Exemption Program. See Housing Incentives Policy for a definition of Non-Profit Housing Provider.
