

How do you travel in Regina? We would love to know!

The City requires your help in understanding how you travel in Regina. By participating in the Household Travel Survey you can share how you move about the city. This information will help shape decisions on transportation and road improvements across Regina.

If your household is randomly selected, you will receive an invitation in the mail to take part in the survey.

Thanks for helping us plan a better Regina!

For more details,
visit www.reginahts.ca

