

Advisory Bike Lanes

How do they work?

- Motorists share a single vehicle lane with oncoming traffic
- On each side of the vehicle lane is a bike lane
- Motorists move into the right-hand bike lane when passing oncoming vehicles
- Motorists must watch for, and yield to, cyclists already in the bike lane
- Motorists continue behind cyclists in the bike lane until it is safe to move back to the shared lane

