

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE MUNICIPAL HERITAGE PROPERTY THE HERITAGE PROPERTY ACT S.S. 1979-80, C.H-2.2 S. 11(2)(B)

Notice is hereby given that not less than 30 days from the date of service of this notice, the Council of the City of Regina intends to pass a bylaw to designate as Municipal Heritage Property the following real property known as:

Cook Residence

legally described as:

Surface Parcel #109501736

Reference Land Description: Lot 5, Blk/Par 631, Plan No. AP3598

and located at:

3160 Albert Street, Regina, Saskatchewan

The reasons for the proposed designation and the heritage significance of the building are as follows:

1. Excellent example of the Tudor Revival style in its design.
2. Association with the locally prominent architectural firm – Van Egmond and Storey.
3. Association with the Interwar development of the Lakeview neighbourhood and the estate-like residential development on Albert Street.

Any person wishing to object to the proposed designation must serve council with a written objection stating the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts not less than three days prior to consideration of the bylaw.

The aforementioned bylaw will be considered by City Council at its meeting on March 25, 2019. Written objections or submissions from persons wishing to make other representations to City Council with respect to the proposed bylaw must be delivered to the City Clerk no later than March 21, 2019.
