

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT ANNUAL ACTIVITY & NEW INITIATIVES GRANTS

Grant Review Committee Biographies

Crystal Mitchell brings the perspective of a long serving volunteer with the Arcola East Community Association. That perspective provides a keen awareness of the work of the voluntary sector within the City of Regina. Crystal is employed in the energy sector in Regina.

Donna Yathon is a supervisor with the Ministry of Social Services, Province of Saskatchewan. She shares clarity of vision that is based in years of experience in case management and support to line staff and clients. Her work brings her in direct contact with families, health care professionals and officers of the court.

Kristin Wawro is a Relationship Manager on the Community Impact and Investment Team with United Way Regina. She has been employed with United Way Regina for four years which has given her the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of community issues in Regina.

Danielle Pass has over 17 years of experience providing senior-level leadership in community-based, collaborative organizations. She is currently the Coordinator of the Regina Regional Intersectoral Committee where she facilitates community planning and collective impact initiatives among various human service organizations. Danielle has participated in several grant review processes including the City of Regina, United Way, and Community Initiatives Fund.

Amy McGregor has participated in the United Way Regina funding application review process since 2011. She has also volunteered in leadership roles with community based organizations in Regina focused on sport, human service, diversity, and education over the past 13 years. This experience provides perspective on the varied needs within the City of Regina. Amy is employed in the communications sector in Regina.

Kimberley Ives has 24 years of experience working in a variety of leadership roles in the volunteer, non-profit, government, and the private sector. She is currently the Disability Management Program Manager at the SK Public Service Commission. As an individual with a disability and a passion for inclusion and a background in the disability community, community development, human resources, and operational management, Kimberley will bring a broad perspective and experience to the grants adjudication process. Kimberley was also the SK Regional Chair of Governor General's Canadian Leadership Conference in 2012 and 2015.